LOCATION

Pica Zuro Lodge is located in the province of Córdoba, in Central Argentina, 60 miles (100 km) north of the Córdoba City International Airport. The driving time from the airport to the lodge is about 1 hour and 30 minutes. Known as the “Heartland of Argentina“, the province of Córdoba boasts of its abundant natural resources and breathtaking landscapes. It is considered one of the most prosperous provinces in the country due to its thriving agricultural industry, especially in the production of soybeans and wheat. The province’s mild climate and optimal breeding conditions have also resulted in a significant population of doves, making Córdoba a world-renowned destination for dove-hunting enthusiasts.

THE HUNTING

For nearly 40 years, Córdoba has been considered the dove shooting capital of the world, and our lodges have been at the forefront of that experience. With millions of doves residing within a 150-mile radius of the lodge, we can easily access a wide range of shooting fields, with short scenic drives through the area's idyllic countryside.

Hunters can experience a wide variety of shooting scenarios throughout the year. The gorgeous, brushy hillside roosting and feeding areas offer great variety, as you can take positions down in valleys, from aside riverbeds, and on the peaks and points of the hills. During the fall harvest seasons, hunters might find themselves shooting along agricultural fields of sorghum, corn, and sunflowers. While each location offers its own special scenarios and shooting opportunities, all offer incredible numbers of fast-flying doves.

While each location offers its own special scenarios and shooting opportunities, all offer incredible numbers of fast flying doves. In the field each hunter will be joined by a field assistant, who will prepare your shooting blind, provide shells and refreshments and oversee your experience. Unlike some other outfitters, David Denies Bird Hunting field assistants are fulltime professionals, with years of guiding and shooting experience. There are no young “bird boys” in the field, all of our staff are extremely knowledgeable when it comes to dove shooting, and their expertise will bring your experience to the next level.

One of the most common questions we are asked, in regard to the shooting is “What Happens to the Birds?”. Each day our lodges donate hundreds of pounds of processed dove meat to Mission Esperanza Foundation. We feed 800 children per day and have already built 3 community centers with our donations and those of our guests.

DAILY ITINERARY

Each morning, guests will be woken up about an hour before departure time. A delicious breakfast will be served, offering a variety of made-to-order options such as waffles and Eggs Benedict.

After breakfast, hunters will leave the lodge around 8:30 – 9:00 am. The driving time to the fields can vary significantly depending on the location of the doves and other environmental factors, but it usually ranges from 20 to 90 minutes approx., with a daily average of 45 minutes. Upon arrival at the field, hunters will be greeted by a field assistant who will guide them to their shooting positions. The head guide will also be available to provide assistance or tips if desired.

The morning shoot will take place until noon, followed by a fantastic Asado lunch served in a comfortable tent or hand-made shelter, where you will enjoy Argentina's wonderful beef and superb wines. After lunch and a short siesta, the afternoon session begins at around 2 – 2:30. The shooting will continue until approx. 5:00 pm, but there is no strict quitting time; it depends on the shooters' fatigue and discretion.

After the shooting day has come to an end, you will return to the lodge, where you will be met with cocktails & appetizers, followed by a delicious dinner and time to relax.

You'll be treated to an incredible Asado-style lunch, served in the shade of a comfortable safari tent, featuring Argentina's world renowned beef and superb wines.
